

BOUCHET GRADUATE HONOR SOCIETY: NOMINATION FORMS FOR MEMBERSHIP

NOTE: This form should only be used by current or former Yale prospective applicants. All other applicants may apply by following the procedures and using the appropriate forms provided by your home institution. Your home or former home institution must have an established Bouchet Graduate Honor Society chapter.

Contact your Graduate School Dean to determine whether or not your institution has a chapter.

Edward Bouchet (1852-1918) was the first self-identified African American to earn a doctorate from an American university when he earned a Ph.D. in physics at Yale University in 1876. He was also one of the first African Americans to be elected to Phi Beta Kappa and one of the first African Americans to graduate from Yale College in 1874. Bouchet was the sixth person in the western hemisphere to earn a Ph.D. in physics.

Edward Alexander Bouchet
(1852-1918)

The Bouchet Graduate Honor Society was inaugurated on Thursday, September 15, 2005 with a simulcast ceremony held at Yale University and Howard University. The co-founding chapters seek to recognize and continue Dr. Bouchet's pioneering contributions to doctoral education.

The Yale University and Howard University partnership with the Edward A. Bouchet Graduate Honor Society recognizes outstanding scholarly achievement and promotes excellence in doctoral education and the professoriate. The Bouchet Graduate Honor Society seeks to develop a network of preeminent scholars who exemplify academic and personal excellence, foster environments of support, and serve as examples of scholarship, leadership, character, service, and advocacy in the academy.

Membership into the Bouchet Graduate Honor Society is by nomination only. All student nominees must be ABD (i.e., completed qualifying exams, orals, qualifying papers or equivalent) and submit all materials listed below. Faculty and post-doctoral fellows are invited to join the Bouchet Graduate Honor Society.

Nomination criteria for students and post-doctoral fellows:

- Three letters of recommendation for the Bouchet Graduate Honor Society must be submitted from each of the following:
 - (1) the nominee's dissertation or faculty advisor with a Graduate School of Arts and Sciences appointment
 - (2) a faculty member with a Graduate School of Arts and Sciences appointment invested in the nominee's research
 - (3) a faculty member, dean or director from the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
- A nomination evaluation form from each of the three recommenders above, indicating strengths of the nominee as they relate to the five pillars of the Honor Society, namely, scholarship, leadership, character, service, and advocacy;
- Transcripts from all graduate and professional schools attended;
- A current curriculum vitae;
- Scholarly writing sample;
- A personal statement capturing how the nominee embodies the characteristics of Dr. Bouchet as expressed through the five pillars and the mission of the Bouchet Graduate Honor Society. Additionally, the candidate should address their anticipated contributions to the Society (2 - 3 pages).

Nomination Criteria for Faculty Members

- Faculty with a Graduate School of Arts and Sciences appointment may be nominated by other faculty members only. The nominator should email a recommendation to michelle.nearon@yale.edu. It should indicate the strengths of the nominee as they relate to the five pillars of the society, namely, leadership, scholarship, character, service, and advocacy.
- Faculty member nominees should submit a CV and personal statement detailing how they intend to contribute to the Bouchet Graduate Honor Society.

Selection Process:

- Upon receipt of completed application materials from nominees, the Membership Selection Committee will review all applications and select inductees.

Timeline:

- Application information and materials available on-line – December 1
- Deadline for receipt of nomination letters and application materials – February 15
- Announcement of new members – March 1
- March/April: Induction Ceremony – Annually at the Yale Bouchet Conference on Graduate Education.

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Types of Membership:

Membership into the Bouchet Honor Society is by nomination only and approved by the Membership Selection Committee. The levels of membership are as listed below:

Doctoral Student Membership will be considered for any individual who is currently a Ph.D. student in good academic standing, and through initial research achievement in a humanities, social sciences, or sciences field, has shown outstanding promise as a scholar, as evidenced by independent investigations or current work on a dissertation project.

Post-Doctoral Member will be considered for any individual who has received their Ph.D. degree over the last 6 years, and through initial research achievement in a humanities, social sciences, or sciences field has shown outstanding promise as a scholar, as evidenced by independent investigations, completion of the dissertation and publications.

Faculty Membership will be considered for any individual who has a Graduate School of Arts and Sciences appointment and a Ph.D. and has shown noteworthy achievement as a scholar and exemplar of the Bouchet Society's mission. The faculty must have a Ph.D. degree (other doctoral degrees are not acceptable) and should currently hold an appointment in the humanities, social sciences, or sciences fields, with a record of publication and evidence of research and teaching in their field of study. Individuals who are invited to membership have (by virtue of their scholarship, research, teaching, and service) shown their commitment to ensuring excellence and equity in graduate education.

All materials must be received on or before March 1 and should be emailed to michelle.nearon@yale.edu.
