

To apply for a GPE Fellow position: Submit an updated resume and cover letter to gsasprofessionaldevelopment@yale.edu with the subject header “[Name of Fellow position]” by Sunday, July. 14 at 11:59 p.m.

WFF GPE Fellow - Women Faculty Forum

Mentor: Nina Stachenfeld, PhD, Chair, Women Faculty Forum, Women Faculty Forum

Fellow Title: WFF GPE Fellow

Organization Name:

Women Faculty Forum

Organization Website:

wff@yale.edu

Organization Description:

Established in 2001, the Yale Women Faculty Forum came together to highlight the importance of women faculty at the University with a focus on gender equity, diversity and equal representation through research, advocacy, and community building. Since its inception, and with the support of the President and Provost of Yale, the WFF has evolved into an organization of women faculty who work together to:

- Foster gender equity throughout the University through policy initiatives and research
- Promote scholarship by women and on women and gender across all schools of the University
- Create mentoring, sponsoring and networking opportunities while strengthening the community

GPE Fellow Responsibilities:

The Women Faculty Forum GPE fellow would be assigned to work on advocacy and research projects and may also participate in our broadening our community building through outreach and planning for events, programming, and communications. WFF advocacy projects in the past have included creating The View, research, data collection and analysis regarding gender and diversity issues on campus, increasing Title IX awareness, and communications and outreach to our greater community. In addition, participating and supporting efforts for more accessible childcare and family supports for Yale Faculty and Staff through the Yale Childcare Consultative Committee.

Desired GPE Fellow Qualifications:

We are looking for a candidate who is community oriented and interested in outreach, is creative and innovative and interested in building resources to support our constituency. We support and encourage individual research projects, related to the goals and purpose of WFF. Ideally, our candidate would have experience and interest in using social media, assisting in design and activity of our profiles and interested in expanding our audience. We look for a strong communicator, who enjoys collaborative work and is motivated to impact those around them.

GPE Fellow Learning Objectives:

Through participation in WFF's advocacy and community building, the fellow will develop a greater understanding and importance of gender equity throughout the university. They will have the opportunity to create their own unique project, supporting the WFF gender equity initiative, while participating in a team based environment focused on creating dynamic advocacy opportunities that have impact across the university.

Number of Available Positions:

2