Historical Research Fellow - Student Accessibility Services

Mentor: Kimberly McKeown, Director, Student Accessibility Services

Fellow Title: Historical Research Fellow

Organization Name:
Student Accessibility Services

Organization Website:
sas.yale.edu

Organization Description:
Student Accessibility Services (SAS) works with Yale students with disabilities, including those in Yale College, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and all Professional Schools to determine and provide appropriate accommodations and auxiliary aids and services through an interactive process. In line with our Mission, Vision, and Values, SAS collaborates with offices and resources across the Yale community to pursue equitable access to education and student life for students with disabilities, and foster a campus environment of belonging, inclusion and respect.

GPE Fellow Responsibilities:
The Fellow will research and document the history of accessibility and inclusion for individuals with disabilities at Yale. Research will include review of archived documents and interviews with former and current stakeholders. Documentation will include creating a timeline and summary of events, people, and policies.

Desired GPE Fellow Qualifications:
- Interest and experience in archival research.
- Ability to work independently and take initiative.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Strong planning and organizational skills.

GPE Fellow Learning Objectives:
Research experience on a topic that is recent and not well documented; collaboration with SAS professional team and university stakeholders; establishing a factual record of activities without judgment.
