Digital Communications and Alumni Engagement Fellow —GSAS Development and Alumni Engagement Office

Mentor: Debby Van Lenten, Associate Director of Alumni Engagement, GSAS Development and Alumni Engagement Office

Fellow Title: Digital Communications and Alumni Engagement Fellow —GSAS Development and Alumni Engagement Office

Organization Name: GSAS Development and Alumni Engagement Office

Organization Website: https://gsas.yale.edu/alumni

Organization Description:
The GSAS Development and Alumni Engagement Office provides several resources to help alumni continue to participate in the Yale community, not only by staying connected with their colleagues but also by engaging in the professional development of new generations of scholars who graduate each year from Yale. The Office of Career Strategy also invites alumni to speak to graduate students about career opportunities in non-academic settings. Many alumni support the Graduate School and their own departments by contributing to the Annual Fund.

GPE Fellow Responsibilities:
The Digital Storytelling Fellow at the Yale Graduate School plays a pivotal role in cultivating and maintaining strong connections between the school and its alum community. This position involves creating engaging digital content, sharing compelling alum and student stories, and fostering meaningful interactions with graduates of the school.
Fellow Responsibilities:

- Collaborate closely with the Associate Director of Alum Engagement to expand the Yale Grad Journeys video series. Interview GSAS alums in person or via zoom, prepare videos for posting to GSAS website or social media.
- Identify and tell compelling stories that showcase the diverse achievements and experiences of Yale Graduate School alums and students.
- Generate innovative ideas and create/curate digital content for various communication channels, including social media, newsletters, and the school's website.
- Capture important moments and events within the Yale Graduate School community, translating them into engaging social media content.

Desired GPE Fellow Qualifications:

- Excellent written and oral communication skills, with keen attention to detail.
- Ability to work independently and take initiative, while also collaborating effectively within a team.
- Experience in digital content creation, social media management, and/or storytelling. Video editing skills or willingness to learn.
- Passion for higher education and an interest in fostering connections within the Yale Graduate School alum community.

GPE Fellow Learning Objectives:

This position offers a unique opportunity to contribute to the vibrant and dynamic alum network of the Yale Graduate School while gaining valuable experience in communications, alum relations, and higher education administration. Join us in celebrating the achievements and contributions of our alums and students as we continue to build a strong and connected community.
