Yale University Registrar's Office 203.432.0461 dissertationreaders@yale.edu

Step 1: Review Dissertation Submission Policies

<http://catalog.yale.edu/gsas/policies-regulations/#dissertation>

Step 2: Review Dissertation Formatting Guide

<http://gsas.yale.edu/sites/default/files/formatdissertation.pdf>

Step 3: Notify Department of Intent to Submit

At least four weeks prior to the dissertation submission deadline, notify your department(s) of your intent to submit your dissertation. Your department needs this time to initiate the assignment of readers in advance of the deadline for dissertation submission. If you later decide to not submit your dissertation, notify your department(s) and your reader assignments will be removed.

Step 4: Confirm Deadline

Dissertations must be sent to the Graduate School by 4:00 p.m. October 1, to be awarded a degree in December 2020,
No in-person submissions will be permitted.

Step 5: Prepare Forms

A hard copy of these forms must accompany the dissertation at the time of submission to the Registrar's Office:

Dissertation Submission and Degree Petition Form (appended to this document) must accompany dissertation when submitted

Survey of Earned Doctorates include confirmation page with submission

GSAS Exit Survey your username is your Yale email. You will have an opportunity to join the Yale Career Network, a Yale alumni networking database. Contact careerstrategy@yale.edu with questions. Include submission confirmation page with your submission

ProQuest ETD Publication Agreement: publishing fees will be paid directly to ProQuest including $20 microfilm charge. Include ETD Details and confirmation of payment page with your submission

Step 6: Submit Dissertation

1. The unbound copy of your dissertation must be sent to the Dissertation Office and received prior to the 4:00 p.m. October 1 deadline. Include copies of surveys and forms from step 5 above with submission
2. Notify the dissertation office that you have submitted your dissertation by emailing dissertationreaders@yale.edu. Attach pdf copies of the forms from step 5 above
3. Confirm the unbound copy and forms will arrive at the Dissertation Office by the deadline. TYCO provides printing and delivery service.
