
From: Lynn Cooley, Dean of the Graduate School <grad.dean@message.yale.edu>
Sent: Tuesday, June 9, 2020 3:45 PM
Subject: Invitation to GSAS Town Hall, Thursday, June 11 at 2 PM EDT

Yale

Graduate School of Arts and Sciences

Copied to: DGSs, Registrars

In this message: Invitation to GSAS Town Hall, Thursday, June 11

June 9, 2020

Dear graduate students,

Please join me Thursday at 2 PM EDT for our next Town Hall with Stephanie Spangler (Vice Provost for Health Affairs & Academic Integrity), Ann Kuhlman (Executive Director of the Office of International Students & Scholars) and Anthony Koleske (Deputy Dean for Scientific Affairs, Medical School)

We plan to share the latest information we have for graduate students regarding Phase 1 reactivation. After a short briefing during which we will answer questions submitted in advance, there will be a Q&A.

To submit questions in advance, please use this anonymizing link:

https://yalesurvey.ca1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_3OTQ4GCrtsn7PDL

Please click the link below to join the webinar on Thursday, June 11 at 2 PM EDT:

<https://yale.zoom.us/j/92645986206>

Before Thursday, you may wish to review the attached FAQs addressing questions from the 5/28 Town Hall. I hope you will find answers to some of your questions before we meet.

I look forward to our session on Thursday afternoon.

Sincerely,

Lynn Cooley

Dean, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences

C.N.H. Long Professor of Genetics

Professor of Cell Biology and of Molecular, Cellular & Developmental Biology

Copyright © 2020 Yale University • All rights reserved

Graduate School of Arts and Sciences

This email was sent by: Yale University

P.O. BOX 208109, New Haven, CT, 06745 US